

Issue No: 3

June 2010

New Album - Departum

Lisa is pleased to announce her new upcoming album for 2010 with fellow composer Marcello de Francisci.

Departum has been two years in the making and is a collection of works and a journey that visits rhythms and vocal colours of lost cities and ancient civilizations dating back to the dawn of man.

It adds another dimension of exploration to Lisa's work.

We are currently in the final development stages of the album and anticipate a mid-June release. Stay tuned to Lisa's website for release dates.

We invite you to listen and watch a preview video of the album here.

New Score - Playing for Charlie

Some of you may remember Lisa wrote a score in 2008 for the Australian film Playing for Charlie by Pene Patrick which screened at many film festivals and received very good reviews, particularly for Lisa's score.

Following its recent debut in Australian cinemas, Lisa has agreed to release an exclusive MP3 soundtrack of the score for purchase from her online store in the coming weeks.

Details about this beautiful film can be found at the official site.

Bonus Tracks on The Black Opal

We have recently been making some modifications to the website to allow customers who purchased the deluxe version of The Black Opal to download the 7 bonus tracks for free.

This aim has now been realised. If you purchased the deluxe version, simply log into your account, view your order and the 7 MP3 tracks will now appear, ready for download and your listening pleasure!

If you purchased the standard edition or would just love to get your hand on these tracks you can still purchase the Bonus Track MP3 album for just $10 from the store.

Come Quietly CD's still available!

We are pleased to advise that we still have over 300 Come Quietly CD's that were not sold during the 2009 tours now available from Lisa's Online Store.

As we won't be manufacturing further copies of Come Quietly once sold out, don't leave it too late to grab your copy!

Promotional Tour for Ryomaden

Lisa recently returned from a short promotional tour in Japan for her vocal work on the NHK Taiga Drama, Ryomaden.

You can view a live performance and media interview from Lisa's time in Japan.

To unsubscribe to the Lisa Gerrard eNewsletter please email: contact@lisagerrard.com